

The Minor Prophets

Hosea – Chapter 12

“Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.”

Hebrews 1:1-2

By the Prophet Hosea

God described himself as a loving father (husband)and Israel as his disobedient son (unfaithful wife).

God said he would be reconciled.

Proverbs 16:18
Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.

Hosea 12:9-14

An aerial photograph of a vast, densely packed tent city, likely representing the Israelites in the wilderness. The tents are small, dark structures with light-colored roofs, stretching across a wide valley. In the center of the city, there is a larger, more prominent structure with a curved roof, possibly a tabernacle or a central meeting place. The background shows rugged, mountainous terrain under a warm, golden light from a low sun, creating a dramatic and atmospheric scene.
