Luke 6:20-49

Sermon on the Plain

Roman Centurion

A group of Roman soldiers in a battle scene. The central figure is a centurion wearing a helmet with a prominent red plume and a shield with a yellow arrow symbol. He has a red mark on his forehead. Other soldiers in the background wear helmets with yellow plumes and carry shields with similar symbols. The scene is set outdoors with trees in the background.

Luke 7:1-10

Widdow's Son

Luke 7:11-17

A detail from a painting, likely a religious scene. On the right, a man with a full, dark beard and mustache is shown from the chest up, looking towards the left. He has a serious expression. On the left, a woman is partially visible, wearing a dark, textured garment and a headpiece with a crown-like element. The background is dark and indistinct.

Messengers from John the Baptist

Luke 7:18-35

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

Luke 7:36-50

A detail from Raphael's fresco 'The School of Athens' depicting a group of women following Jesus. The women are shown in various states of distress and grief, with some covering their faces and others looking upwards. The background shows a landscape with a body of water and a distant shore.

Women who followed Jesus

Luke 8:1-3

Parable of the Sower

Luke 8:4-8

Parable of the Sower Explained

Luke 8:9-15

Luke 8:15 (Conclusion)

As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience.

Word and Light

Luke 8:16-18

Luke 8:16

"No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light.

Luke 8:17

For nothing is hidden that will not be made manifest, nor is anything secret that will not be known and come to light.

Luke 8:18

Take care then how you hear, for to the one who has, more will be given, and from the one who has not, even what he thinks that he has will be taken away."
