Luke 12:49-53

Luke 12:49

“I came to cast fire on the earth,
and would that it were already kindled!

Luke 12:50

A person is being baptized underwater. The scene is dimly lit with a greenish-blue hue. The person is standing upright, and their head is just below the surface of the water. The water is slightly rippled, and the overall atmosphere is serene and spiritual.

I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how great is my distress until it is accomplished!

Luke 12:51

Do you think that I have come
to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.

Luke 12:52

For from now
on in one house
there will be five divided, three against two and two against three.

Luke 12:53

They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

Luke 12:54-56

A dramatic seascape with a stormy sky, dark mountains, and waves crashing against rocks. The sky is filled with heavy, dark clouds, with a bright light source breaking through near the horizon, creating a shimmering path on the water. The mountains in the background are dark and silhouetted against the lighter sky. The foreground shows turbulent waves with white foam crashing against dark, jagged rocks.

Luke 12:54

He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, ‘A shower is coming.’ And so it happens.

Luke 12:55

And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be scorching heat,' and it happens.

Luke 12:56

You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

Luke 12:57-59

Luke 12:57

“And why do you not judge for yourselves
what is right?”

Luke 12:58

As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison.

Luke 12:59

I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny.”
