Luke 18:9

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt:

Luke 18:10

"Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

Luke 18:11

The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: 'God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.

Luke 18:12

I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get.'

Ezekiel 33:13

Though I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, yet if he trusts in his righteousness and does injustice, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered, but in his injustice that he has done he shall die.

Luke 18:13

But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!'

Luke 18:14a

I tell you, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other.

Luke 18:14b

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."
