Luke 19:45-48

The Cleansing of the Temple by Alexander Smirnov

Luke 19:45

And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold,

A cinematic-style photograph of Jesus walking through a crowd of people in a temple setting. Jesus is in the center, wearing a blue robe over a white tunic, with long brown hair and a beard. He is looking slightly to his right. The crowd consists of men of various ages and beards, some wearing traditional head coverings and robes. The background shows the interior of a large building with tall columns and a high ceiling.

Luke 19:46

saying to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer,' but you have made it a den of robbers."

A painting depicting Jesus teaching in the temple. Jesus is in the center, wearing a white robe and gesturing with his right hand. He is surrounded by a crowd of people, some in white robes and others in darker clothing. In the foreground, a group of men, likely the chief priests and scribes mentioned in the text, are seated on a wooden bench, looking towards Jesus with various expressions of interest and skepticism. The background shows the interior of a large temple with tall columns and a high ceiling.

Luke 19:47

And he was teaching daily in the temple. The chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people were seeking to destroy him, but they did not find anything they could do, for all the people were hanging on his words.

Luke 19:48

Luke 20:1-8

Luke 20:1

One day, as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came up

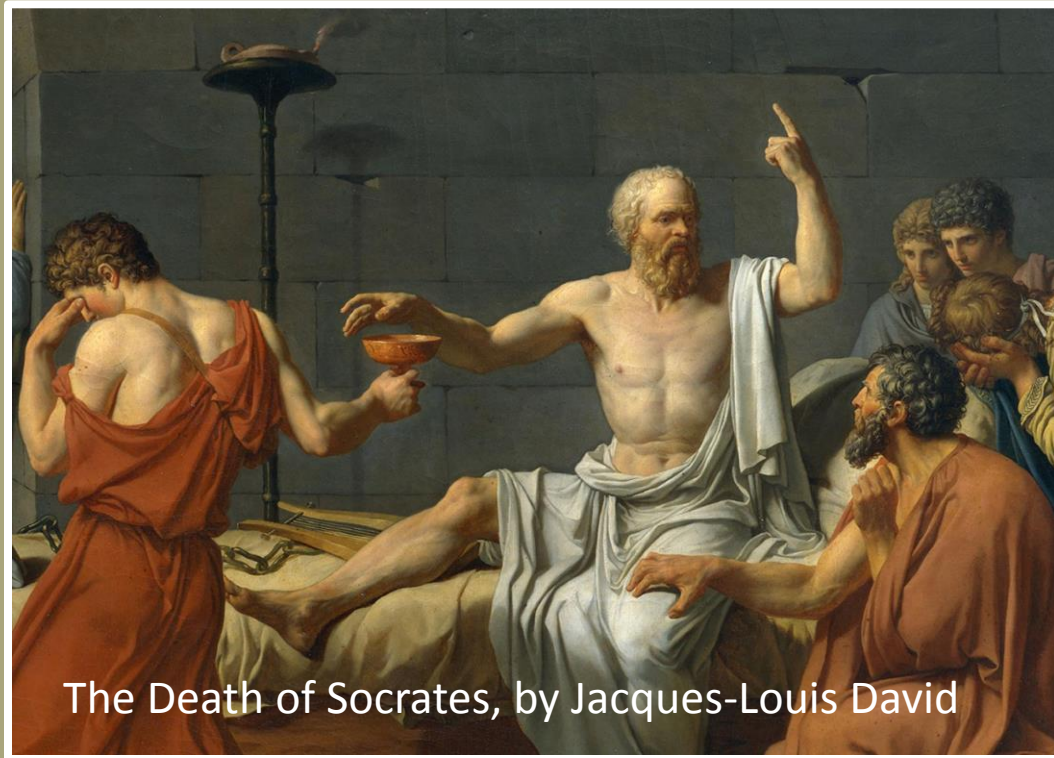

Luke 20:2

and said to him, “Tell us by what authority you
do these things,
or who it is that gave you this authority.”

Luke 20:3

The Death of Socrates, by Jacques-Louis David

He answered them, “I also will ask you a question. Now tell me,

A close-up portrait of St. John the Baptist by Leonardo da Vinci. The subject has long, curly brown hair and is looking slightly to the right with a gentle expression. His right hand is raised, with the index finger pointing upwards. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the contours of his face and hand against a dark background.

Luke 20:4

was the baptism of John from heaven or from man?"

St. John the Baptist by Leonardo Davinci

Luke 20:5

And they discussed it with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’”

Luke 20:6

But if we say,
‘From man,’ all the people will stone us to death, for they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

Luke 20:7

So they answered that they did not know where it came from.

THE ABOVE

Luke 20:8

And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”
