Luke 23:44-49

Luke 23:44

It was now about the sixth hour,
and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour,

Luke 23:45

while the sun's light failed. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two.

Luke 23:46

Then Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last.

Luke 23:47

Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God, saying, "Certainly this man was innocent!"

“A coward dies a thousand times before his death, but the valiant taste of death but once. It seems to me most strange that men should fear, seeing that death, a necessary end, will come when it will come.”

— William Shakespeare, Julius Caesar

Luke 23:48

And all the crowds that had assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, returned home beating their breasts.

Luke 23:49

And all his acquaintances and the women who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance watching these things.

Luke 23:50-56

Luke 23:50

Now there was a man named Joseph, from the Jewish town of Arimathea. He was a member of the council, a good and righteous man, who had not consented to their decision and action; and he was looking for the kingdom of God.

Luke 23:51

Luke 23:52

This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

Luke 23:53

Then he took it down and wrapped it in a linen shroud and laid him in a tomb cut in stone, where no one had ever yet been laid.

Luke 23:54

It was the day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was beginning.

Luke 23:55

The women who had come with him from Galilee followed and saw the tomb and how his body was laid.

Luke 23:56

Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.
