Luke 23:50-56

Luke 24:1-12

Luke 24:1

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared.

Luke 24:2

And they found the stone rolled
away from the tomb,

Luke 24:3

but when they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

Luke 24:4

While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel.

Luke 24:5

And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?"

Luke 24:6

He is not here, but has risen.

Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee,

Luke 24:7

that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise."

Luke 24:8

And they remembered his words,

Luke 24:9

and returning from the tomb they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

Luke 24:10

Now it was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles,

Luke 24:11

but these words seemed to them
an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

Luke 24:12

But Peter rose and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; and he went home marveling at what had happened.

Luke 24:13-27

A painting depicting three men walking on a dirt path through a dense forest. The man in the center is wearing a white robe and has his right hand raised, pointing towards a bright, glowing light breaking through the trees in the distance. The other two men, one in a red robe and one in a brown robe, are walking alongside him. The scene is filled with lush green foliage and large, mature trees. The overall atmosphere is one of hope and discovery.

Luke 24:13

That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem,

Luke 24:14

and they were talking with each other about all these things that had happened.

Luke 24:15

While they were talking and discussing together, Jesus himself drew near and went with them.

Luke 24:16

But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

Luke 24:17

And he said to them, "What is this conversation that you are holding with each other as you walk?" And they stood still, looking sad.

Luke 24:18

Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?"

Luke 24:19

And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him.

Luke 24:20

Luke 24:21

But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened.

Luke 24:22

Moreover, some women of our company amazed us. They were at the tomb early in the morning, and when they did not find his body, they came back saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.

Luke 24:23

Luke 24:24

Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see."

Luke 24:25

And he said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!

Luke 24:26

Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?"

Luke 24:27

And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.
